

Social Group Listening & Learning Comprehension

Use simple stories on Youtube or Vooks to help your child understand various concepts. Simply pause the video, gain the child's attention and ask them a question. Some ideas are asking about emotions, asking 'how many' for counting practice, & discussing friendly social skills to practice with others.

Unicorn & Horse by David W Miles

(Youtube length- 5:27)

| Time to Pause Youtube Video | Suggested Question                       | Acceptable Answers                          |
|-----------------------------|--|---|
| -4:50                       | Who looks happy?How does Horse look? | UnicornSad, mad                         |
| -4:22                       | What does Unicorn eat?                   | Cupcakes                                    |
| -4:12                       | What are some colors in the rainbow?     | Red, Orange, Yellow, Green,Blue, Purple |
| -3:13                       | What does the bird use for her nest?     | Unicorns hair                               |
| -2:17                       | How does Unicorn feel?                   | Scared, worried                             |
| -1:40                       | What should Horse do?                    | Help save Unicorn                           |

Stick & Stone by Beth Ferry & Tom Lichtenheld

(Youtube length-5:01)

| Time to Pause Youtube Video | Suggested Question    | Acceptable Answers           |
|-----------------------------|-----------------------|------------------------------|
| -4:30                       | How does Stone look?  | Sad                          |
| -3:49                       | What should Stone do? | Ask Stick to play with them! |
| -3:20                       | How does Stone feel?  | Hurt, Sad                    |
| -2:42                       | Are they happy now?   | Yes                          |
| -1:45                       | How do they feel?     | Scared                       |
| -0:50                       | What should Stone do? | Help his friend!             |

Peep Plants a Seed- Peep and the Big Wide World

(Youtube length 8:50)

| Time to Pause Youtube Video | Suggested Question                                     | Acceptable Answers       |
|-----------------------------|--|--------------------------|
| :20                         | Why did Peep like the flower?                          | It looks the same as him |
| :32                         | How does he feel after running so far?                 | Tired                    |
| 1:30                        | Where is the bird?                                     | On the flower            |
| 2:20                        | How does Peep feel after getting the seed?             | Happy                    |
| 3:06                        | How does Peep feel now?                                | Sad                      |
| 3:55                        | Where is the seed?                                     | Under the dirt           |
| 4:03                        | How many birds are there?                              | Three                    |
| 4:17                        | The Red bird helped Peep, what should Peep say to him? | Thank you                |
| 4:55                        | How do they feel after waiting so long?                | Bored                    |
| 8:08                        | How does he feel now?                                  | Happy                    |